

6516207331.txt

Satellite radio is by far the greatest innovation in radio since the beginning of time. It provides a consistency in format across the US and is invaluable to the traveller.

Traffic and weather is particularly useful and because it is full time throughout the day, not casually done as on most local stations, limited to hourly if you can find it and almost always only in the morning and afternoon. If you are not from a particular area, it is a beacon in the wilderness!

Keep competition open - oppose to HR 4026